LEOPARDS

Lair Tsavo

WILD CHARM

Five rustic, thatched cottages in the Taita Hills, within the Lumo Conservancy on the edge of Tsavo West.

– Welcome –

Soroi Leopards Lair is a private haven of five rustic cottages in the Taita Hills, within the unspoiled Lumo Conservancy bordering Tsavo West. It is the smallest property in the Lumo cluster, and the most intimate.

Each cottage is thatched and opens onto its own panoramic outside deck with a kitchenette. Three are Double Cottages with a king-size bed, and two are Triple Cottages with a king-size bed and a single bed.

Stays can be booked full board with three meals a day, as a game package that adds two shared game drives daily, or self-catering with accommodation only. There is a bar and a fireplace, and private dining on request.

– The Cottages –

Five rustic, thatched-roof cottages set into the hillside above the Lumo Conservancy. A king-size bed under mosquito netting, an en-suite bathroom with shower, a wardrobe and bespoke organic soaps and care products, and a panoramic outside deck with seating and a kitchenette. Two cottages are Triple Cottages with a king-size bed and a single bed.

Pictured: the cottages and their decks. Complimentary Wi-Fi, filtered water and a fridge in every cottage.

– Dining –

Plated dining with dietary needs catered for on request, and private dining on request. Each cottage has a kitchenette, and self-catering is available if booked that way. Evenings gather round the fireplace and the bar, and breakfasts and sundowners are set up out on the plains.

Bush meals and sundowners need advance notice. Speak to your guide on arrival.

– Experiences –

Days at Soroi Leopards Lair are spent across the Lumo Conservancy and the Taita Hills: game drives, walks, sundowners on the plains and cultural visits. Activities are arranged through your guide or at reception, and rates are in the Activities guide.
